A letter from the SDA A President

Greetings SDA A Members,

Those of you that attended the Black Hills Stock Show in Rapid City and the SDA A Bid Calling Contest were treated to a great event. The contest featured 18 contestants from South Dakota, Nebraska, Wyoming, Montana, North Dakota and Minnesota.

After a terrific preliminary round, a tie in the scores made it necessary to bring back six finalists. In the final round, another tie score required a "sell off" between the eventual Champion and Runner-up contestants.

When the dust finally settled, Ben Meyer, Huron, SD was named the Champion of the SDA A-Black Hills Stock Show bid-calling contest. Great job to all who competed!

Events like this take a lot of help to pull off so I'd like to personally thank several...Dan Clark, last year's champion, did a great job as the emcee; Dawn Luckett, our Executive Secretary, for clerking, organizing and all she does for SDA A; the contest judges; BHSS staff; SDA A members for their help as ringmen; Thanks to KBHB Radio, KEVN-Fox TV and the Rapid City Journal for their promotion and coverage prior to and following the contest; and lastly, the Central States Fair Foundation for their help in securing additional items for the contest.

Look for this contest to be an annual event at the Black Hills Stock Show. Thanks again!

Your SDA A Board of Directors will meet Friday, March 13 in Chamberlain-Oacoma. If you have an agenda item let myself, Dawn Luckett or your Zone Director know so it can be brought forward.

Things are coming together for the SDA A Annual Convention, June 11, 12 & 13 in Oacoma, SD at Cedar Shore Resort. This newsletter outlines a "rough" schedule and as we work out final details with everyone involved the final schedule will be in the next newsletter. Cindy is working on some fun things for the ladies too! For those of you that have never been to the convention let my column be your personal invitation!

Many of my very best friends and business associates are people I would never have met had I not attended my first SDA A convention. We'd love to have you the entire three days but encourage you to come if only for a morning, afternoon or day.

As I'm wrapping this column up it just so happens to be President's Day. With all the "stuff" going on in the world I am reminded of how fortunate we are to live where we do. Though not perfect, the United States is still the freest and most blessed place on earth. From time to time I use the phrase "the faster I go, the more behind I get."

We live in an ever changing, fast paced society, so

in all this let's remember to hug our families, say "thank you" to our customers, pray for our men and women of the armed forces and help to leave our communities, state and country better than we found them.

Until next time...
"Remember-Only at Auction!"

Kind regards,
Chisum Peterson
